

LawVision Group is Voted #1....This Time for Legal Project Management

By LawVision on April 28, 2016

LawVision Group has been voted “Best Legal Project Management Consultant” as part of the AI 2015 Legal Awards.

According to Acquisition International, “These awards are given to commend outstanding work throughout the legal world over the past 12 months, recognizing excellence in all areas of the industry, from commercial litigation and arbitration to immigration law, insolvency, intellectual property and many more. Nominated by clients, peers and fellow professionals; voted for by our subscribers and agreed by our industry experts, the Legal Awards provide a comprehensive go-to resource for those seeking the truly outstanding legal professionals from around the world, who go the extra mile to get the job done in style.”

Susan Raridon Lambreth, a Principal at LawVision Group and founder of the LPM Institute, stated, “We launched the first LPM certification course in early 2010, and it’s been rewarding to see the evolution of this very important area of focus for law firms. We are thrilled to receive this award and are privileged to work with law firms and legal departments to help increase efficiency and enhance internal and external client relationships through the use of LPM techniques.” Carla Landry, a Senior Consultant at LawVision Group and a Board Member of the LPM Institute, added “After more than 20 years of working with law firms to help them understand the numbers and why they matter, it’s exciting to have the opportunity to tie it all together with LPM. LPM techniques create transparencies for the client and enhance profitability for the firm and that’s a win-win for everybody.”
