

Truda Chow Joins The LawVision Group

By LawVision on January 25, 2016

LawVision Group is pleased to announce that Truda Chow has joined the company as a Senior Consultant. Truda joins LawVision Group with nearly twenty years' of global strategy, business development and marketing experience and is considered one of the industry's top global management and professional services experts, having worked internationally (Australia and Hong Kong) for nearly ten years. She is recognized for utilizing her leadership skills in leveraging strong cross-cultural, cross-departmental relationships to drive and implement strategic planning processes.

Truda started her career in consulting, including more than two years as a law firm strategy consultant with Hildebrandt International. Immediately prior to joining LawVision Group, she worked for a leading international UK-based law firm as the Asia Head of Business Development, Strategy and Marketing based in Hong Kong. Before that, she spent eight years as the Global Business Development and Strategy Manager for the High Tech Industry at Underwriters Laboratories. There she led and implemented global strategy projects that drove increased customer preference and market share as well as improvements in operational efficiency.

As the newest member of the LawVision Group team, Truda will play a key role in leading diverse, multi-disciplined teams for our clients. She will advise clients in relation to strategic planning and implementation as well as other related management issues.