Creating Competitive Advantage

LPM Institute

The LPM Institute is pleased to offer a comprehensive two-day workshop on legal project management. Register today for this workshop and learn the fundamentals to efficiently and effectively manage your matters or engagements. This hands-on program will demonstrate how proven project management principles can be successfully applied to legal work and teach you how to implement project management in your legal organization. Our deep experience in the legal market makes this program uniquely useful to those who are seeking to gain and apply effective project management skills in the legal arena. In this program you will...

- Learn how to adapt proven project management best practices to the legal industry
- Understand the phases of legal project management
- Apply with tools and processes to successfully manage internal and external client demands
- Work through case studies based on actual legal matters
- Apply principles and processes to a case study so you can learn how LPM can work on your matters

LPM Institute was founded as an informational resource to law firms and legal departments on developing and implementing LPM in their organizations. The Institute offers legal project management and process improvement training courses, consulting and informational resources for LPM. Susan Raridon Lambreth, Principal with LawVision Group and a former Hildebrandt partner for 20 years founded the Institute. She and Carla Landry developed the first certification course in project management for lawyers in early 2010 and since then, over 3,000 lawyers have taken these courses, including 600 who have completed the certification.

Earn the LPM LaunchPad™ Certificate in Fundamentals of Legal Project Management

Now in its fifth year, our Training Program offers attorneys and other legal professionals the opportunity to earn the LPM Certificate and understand the essential elements of legal project management. The course is taught by leading experts who have trained over 8,000 lawyers in project management, leadership and practice management, and who have industry experience from organizations who embraced project management concepts long before law firms. This skills-based workshop uses a mixture of law firm case studies, small group exercises and lecture to teach participants the skills they need to exceed client expectations for efficient and effective legal work.

Response to the program:

Linda Salem, Executive Director, Reed Smith University “This was a very valuable program. The content was very good, and it was reinforced through the exercises. I learned a lot from the presenters and from my fellow participants

Dominie Banfield, head of Legal Project Management at Allens, Asia-Pacific “LawVision’s legal project management training was excellent for our partners and senior associates. It helped them develop a strong set of skills in project management and offered them a changed perspective for engaging with clients. Ms. Lambreth was excellent – engaging and knowledgeable – and we all gained a lot from the workshop.”

Shaun Temby, Partner at Maddocks Lawyers \(formerly Norton Rose Fulbright\), Sydney “I found this seminar to be an excellent introduction to both the concept of legal project management and also the business case for introducing this methodology to my practice. The seminar had a strong practical component and attendees will leave the seminar with a suite of tools that they can apply in their everyday working life to improve their project management capabilities. This seminar is a must for legal and support staff that are interested in the concept of legal project management but new to its everyday workings.”

Marina Makanova, Former Project Director at Dentons US LLP: “Legal Project Management training offers a wealth of information on the subject. The modules in this course address critical issues with clear explanation of problems and how to deal with them step by step. I also found it highly beneficial to be in the room with other professionals facing similar challenges and exchanging ideas about ways to tackle them.”

Alex Rahm, Department Operating Officer at Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton remarked that the workshop was “very effective and well worth the time” adding that “the course provides an excellent framework for legal project management and includes practical exercises and approaches that one can immediately apply. I would recommend it for all those looking to implement project management and those needing a refresher course on effective project management.”
